

A huge mahalo to all of you!

Monday, 21 November 2011 10:35

We would like to thank all of our sponsors, volunteers, spectators, and most importantly, the drivers who have made our first complete season the huge success that it has been!

The season is over now, and we're brainstorming the new rules and regs to govern our 2012 seasons for all of our events, as well as looking into introducing a few more. We've also got great stuff planned for the website, as well as our Volume 1 DVD release coming soon! In addition, we'll be offering pre-registration for all of our events as well as improvements to our current ticketing system. All of this, plus much more is heading your way for Kalaeloa Raceway Park's 2012 season.

Stay tuned to this website for more information on upcoming events! Mahalo to all of you for your support, and see you in 2012!
